Certified Award

to Claimant [REDACTED]

in re Account of Hedwig Wolff

Claim Number: 786470/WT<sup>1</sup>

Award Amount: 189,250.00 Swiss Francs

This Certified Award is based upon the claim of [REDACTED], née [REDACTED], (the “Claimant”) to the accounts of Hedwig Wolff, Arthur Krzesni and Joseph Krzesni.<sup>2</sup> This Award is to the published account of Hedwig Wolff (the “Account Owner”) at the [REDACTED] (the “Bank”).<sup>3</sup>

All awards are published, but where a claimant has requested confidentiality, as in this case, the names of the claimant, any relatives of the claimant other than the account owner, and the bank have been redacted.

Information Provided by the Claimant

The Claimant submitted an Initial Questionnaire (“IQ”) identifying the Account Owner as her maternal grandmother, Hedwig Wolff, who lived in Hohenstein, Germany (today Olsztynek, Poland). The Claimant indicated that Hedwig Wolff’s daughter was the Claimant’s mother, [REDACTED], née [REDACTED], who was married to [REDACTED], the Claimant’s father. In a telephone conversation with the CRT on 26 March 2007, the Claimant stated that both the <sup>1</sup> [REDACTED] (the “Claimant”) did not submit a Claim Form to the CRT. However, in 1999 she submitted an Initial Questionnaire (“IQ”), numbered ENG-0641105, to the Court in the United States. Although this IQ was not a Claim Form, the Court, in an Order signed on 30 July 2001, ordered that those IQs which can be processed as claim forms be treated as timely claims. Order Concerning Use of Initial Questionnaire Responses as Claim Forms in the Claims Resolution Process for Deposited Assets (July 30, 2001). The IQ was forwarded to the CRT and has been assigned claim number 786470.

<sup>2</sup> The CRT did not locate an account belonging to Arthur Krzesni or Joseph Krzesni in the Account History Database prepared pursuant to the investigation of the Independent Committee of Eminent Persons (“ICEP” or “ICEP Investigation”), which identified accounts probably or possibly belonging to Victims of Nazi Persecution, as defined in the Rules Governing the Claims Resolution Process, as amended (the “Rules”).

<sup>3</sup> The CRT notes that the name Hedwig Wolff appears twice on the February 2001 published list of accounts determined by ICEP to be probably or possibly those of Victims of Nazi Persecution (the “ICEP List”), and once on the List of Account Owners Published in 2005 (the “2005 List”). Upon careful review, the CRT has determined that the Hedwig Wolff published on the 2005 List is not the same person addressed in the current decision and, consequently, the Claimant did not identify this other account owner as her relative.

Wolff and [REDACTED] families emigrated west, and lived in Lautenburg, Germany (today Lidzbark, Poland), Berlin, Germany, and Enschede, Holland. The Claimant stated that her mother's family, who was Jewish, deposited assets in Switzerland. The Claimant further indicated that her maternal grandmother, her mother, and [REDACTED], a sister of the Claimant, were deported to the Westerbork concentration camp in 1943, and that all three ultimately perished in Auschwitz. The Claimant indicated that from 1942 until 1945, she went into hiding in the Netherlands with her father and her sister, [REDACTED]. The Claimant indicated that she was born on 6 March 1940.

Information Available in the Bank's Record

The Bank's record consists of a customer card. According to this record, the Account Owner was Frau (Mrs.) Justizrat (legal advisor) Hedwig Wolff, who resided in Charlottenburg, Germany. The Bank's record indicates that the Account Owner held one custody account, numbered 36372, and one demand deposit account.

The Bank's record indicates that the custody account was closed on 26 August 1938 and the demand deposit account was closed on 20 February 1934. The amounts in these accounts on the date of closure are unknown. There is no evidence in the Bank's record that the Account Owner or her heirs closed the accounts and received the proceeds themselves.

The CRT's Analysis

Identification of the Account Owner

The Claimant's grandmother's name and country of residence match the published name and country of residence of the Account Owner. The Claimant indicated that her grandmother resided in Berlin, which matches unpublished information about the Account Owner contained in the Bank's record. The CRT notes that Charlottenburg is a district of Berlin.

The CRT notes that the Claimant filed an IQ with the Court in 1999, asserting her entitlement to a Swiss bank account owned by Hedwig Wolff, prior to the publication in February 2001 of the list of accounts determined by ICEP to be probably or possibly those of Victims of Nazi Persecution (the "ICEP List"). This indicates that the Claimant has based her present claim not simply on the fact that an individual identified on the ICEP List as owning a Swiss bank account bears the same name as her relative, but rather on a direct family relationship that was known to her before the publication of the ICEP List. It also indicates that the Claimant had reason to believe that her relative owned a Swiss bank account prior to the publication of the ICEP List. This supports the credibility of the information provided by the Claimant. The CRT notes that the other claims to this account were disconfirmed because that claimant provided a different country of residence than the country of residence of the Account Owner. Taking all of these factors into account, the CRT concludes that the Claimant has plausibly identified the Account Owner.

Status of the Account Owner as a Victim of Nazi Persecution

The Claimant has made a plausible showing that the Account Owner was a Victim of Nazi Persecution. The Claimant stated that the Account Owner was Jewish, that she was deported to Westerbork in 1943, and that she ultimately perished in Auschwitz.

The Claimant's Relationship to the Account Owner

The Claimant has plausibly demonstrated that she is related to the Account Owner by submitting specific biographical information, demonstrating that the Account Owner was the Claimant's maternal grandmother. The CRT notes that the Account Owner may have other surviving relatives, but that because they are not represented in the Claimant's claim, and have not submitted claims of their own, the CRT will not treat their potential entitlement to the Account Owner's accounts in this decision.

The CRT further notes that the Claimant identified unpublished information about the Account Owner as contained in the Bank's record, and that the Claimant filed an IQ with the Court in 1999, identifying the relationship between the Account Owner and the Claimant, prior to the publication in February 2001 of the ICEP List. Finally, the CRT notes that the foregoing information is of the type that family members would possess and indicates that the Account Owner was well known to the Claimant as a family member, and all of this information supports the plausibility that the Claimant is related to the Account Owner, as she has asserted in her Claim Form.

The Issue of Who Received the Proceeds

The Bank's record indicates that the custody account was closed on 26 August 1938 and the demand deposit account was closed on 20 February 1934. Given that that Account Owner resided in Nazi Germany until her deportation to Westerbork; that there is no record of the payment of the Account Owner's accounts to her; that the Account Owner and her heirs would not have been able to obtain information about her accounts after the Second World War from the Bank due to the Swiss banks' practice of withholding or misstating account information in their responses to inquiries by account owners because of the banks' concern regarding double liability; and given the application of Presumptions (h) and (j), as provided in Article 28 of the Rules Governing the Claims Resolution Process, as amended (the "Rules") (see Appendix A), the CRT concludes that it is plausible that the account proceeds were not paid to the Account Owner or her heirs. Based on its precedent and the Rules, the CRT applies presumptions to assist in the determination of whether or not Account Owners or their heirs received the proceeds of their accounts.

Basis for the Award

The CRT has determined that an Award may be made in favor of the Claimant. First, the claim is admissible in accordance with the criteria contained in Article 18 of the Rules. Second, the Claimant has plausibly demonstrated that the Account Owner was her grandmother, and that relationship justifies an Award. Third, the CRT has determined that it is plausible that neither the Account Owner nor her heirs received the proceeds of the claimed accounts.

Amount of the Award

In this case, the Account Owner held one custody account and one demand deposit account. Pursuant to Article 29 of the Rules, when the value of an account is unknown, as is the case here, the average value of the same or a similar type of account in 1945 is used to calculate the current value of the account being awarded. Based on the ICEP Investigation, in 1945 the average value of a custody account was 13,000.00 Swiss Francs ("SF"), and the average value of a demand deposit account was SF 2,140.00. Thus, the combined 1945 average value for the two accounts at issue is SF 15,140.00. The current value of this amount is calculated by multiplying it by a factor of 12.5, in accordance with Article 31(1) of the Rules, to produce a total award amount of SF 189,250.00.

Scope of the Award

The Claimant should be aware that, pursuant to Article 20 of the Rules, the CRT will carry out further research on her claim to determine whether there are additional Swiss bank accounts to which she might be entitled, including research of the Total Accounts Database (consisting of records of 4.1 million Swiss bank accounts which existed between 1933 and 1945).

Certification of the Award

The CRT certifies this Award for approval by the Court and payment by the Special Masters.
