In re Holocaust Victim Assets Litigation
Case No. CV96-4849

Certified Denial

to Claimant [REDACTED]

Claimed Account Owner: Josef Adler¹

Claim Number: 218262/SB

This Certified Denial is to the claim of [REDACTED], née Rosenblum (the “Claimant”) to a Swiss bank account potentially owned by the Claimant’s relative, Josef Adler (the “Claimed Account Owner”).

All denials are published, but where a claimant has requested confidentiality, as in this case, the names of the claimant, any relatives of the claimant other than the account owner, and the bank have been redacted.

Information Provided by the Claimant

The Claimant submitted a claim stating that Josef Adler, who was Jewish, was her mother’s brother. According to correspondence from the Claimant’s son, Josef Adler was the son of Leo (Leon) and Sara Adler, and Leo (Leon) Adler died shortly after Josef was born. The Claimant’s son explained that Sara Adler then married a man named Rosenblum, and that she and Josef (and the Claimant’s mother) took the name Rosenblum as well. The Claimant stated that her uncle was a doctor who emigrated from Russia to Germany shortly after the Russian Revolution. The Claimant further stated that Josef Rosenblum (formerly Adler) last contacted his family in 1936 or 1937, when he indicated that he was going to leave Germany for Switzerland. The Claimant further stated her uncle had not married at that time, and that she was his only heir. The CRT notes that the Claimant did not provide any documentary evidence linking her to the name Adler.

The CRT’s Investigation

The CRT matched the name of Josef Adler to the names of all account owners in the Account History Database and identified accounts belonging to individuals whose names match, or are substantially similar to, the name of the Claimed Account Owner. In doing so, the CRT used advanced name matching systems and computer programs, and considered variations of names, including name variations provided by Yad Vashem, The Holocaust Martyrs’ and Heroes’

¹ The Claimant should note that this determination relates only to the Claim Number and Claimed Account Owner stated above, and that the CRT is aware that the Claimant may have submitted other claims.

Remembrance Authority, in Jerusalem, Israel, to ensure that all possible name matches were identified. However, a close review of the relevant bank records indicated that the information contained therein was inconsistent with the information the Claimant provided regarding the Claimed Account Owner. Accordingly, the CRT was unable to conclude that any of these accounts belonged to the Claimed Account Owner.

The CRT's Analysis

Identification of the Account Owner

The list below contains names of account owners that match the name of the Claimed Account Owner and the reasons why the CRT has concluded that the Claimed Account Owner and an account owner are not the same person. If an account owner's place of residence was published, that place of residence is also listed.

Name: Josef Adler (Frankfurt am Main, Germany)

Account Identification Number: 1000317

Specifically, the Claimant stated that her relative, Josef Rosenblum (formerly Adler), last contacted his family in 1936 or 1937. In contrast, the records show that the account owner used only the last name Adler and died prior to 1936. The records also show that the account owner's heirs were in contact with the bank after the account owner's death. The CRT notes that the Claimant did not indicate that her relative married, and that she stated that she was his only heir. The CRT also notes that the Claimant was not able to provide any documentary evidence linking her to the name Adler.

The Claimant should note that all accounts awarded by the CRT are published upon release on the CRT's website at www.crt-ii.org.

Right of Appeal and Request for Reconsideration

Pursuant to Article 30 of the Rules Governing the Claims Resolution Process, as amended (the "Rules"), the Claimant may appeal this decision or submit a request for reconsideration within ninety (90) days of the date of the letter accompanying this decision.

An appeal must be based upon a plausible suggestion of error regarding the CRT's conclusions set out in this decision. Any appeals which are submitted without a plausible suggestion of error shall be summarily denied. A request for reconsideration must be based on new documentary evidence not previously presented to the CRT that, if considered, would have led to a different outcome of the claim. Claimants should briefly explain the relevance of the newly submitted documents in view of the conclusions stated in the certified decision.

The Claimant should send appeals and/or requests for reconsideration in writing to the following address: Oren Wiener, Claims Resolution Tribunal, Attention: Appeals / Request for Reconsideration, P.O. Box 9564, 8036 Zurich, Switzerland. If more than one account has been treated in this decision, the Claimant should identify the account, including, where available, the Account Identification Number, that forms the basis of the appeal and/or request for reconsideration.

Scope of the Denial

The CRT now considers the Claimant's claim to the accounts of Josef Adler closed. Please note that this decision applies only to the Claim Number and Claimed Account Owner identified herein, and that the CRT is aware that the Claimant may have claimed accounts held by other persons or entities both in the Claim Number specified above and in other claims submitted to the CRT.

Certification of the Denial

The CRT certifies this Denial for approval by the Court.
