Case No. CV96-4849

Certified Denial

to Claimant Mira Bauer
also acting on behalf of Arie Bauer and Israela Korckous

in re Account of Isidor Bauer

Claim Number: 401345/SB

This Certified Denial is based on the claim of Mira Bauer (the “Claimant”) to the published account of Isidor Bauer (the “Account Owner”) at the [REDACTED] (the “Bank”).

All denials are published. Where a claimant has not requested confidentiality, as in this case, only the name of the bank has been redacted.

Information Provided by the Claimant

The Claimant submitted a Claim Form in 2005 asserting that her paternal grandfather, Isidor Bauer, who was born in 1886 in Tschernowitz (today the Ukraine), and was married to Sussel Halperin, owned a Swiss bank account. The Claimant stated that her grandfather, who was Jewish, was a businessman who resided in Poland until after the outbreak of the Second World War, when the family lost contact with the Claimant’s grandfather. The Claimant indicated that she was born on 20 July 1951 in Israel.

Information Available in the Bank’s Records

The CRT notes that the Claimant submitted a claim to an account belonging to her relative, Isidor Bauer. The auditors who carried out the investigation to identify accounts of Victims of Nazi Persecution pursuant to instructions of the Independent Committee of Eminent Persons (“ICEP” or the “ICEP Investigation”) reported one account whose owner’s name matches that provided by the Claimant. The account is identified below by its Account Identification Number, which is a number assigned to the account by the ICEP auditors for tracking purposes.

Account 1000053

The Bank’s records indicate that the Account Owner was Isidor Bauer. The Bank’s records also indicate the Account Owner’s city and country of residence, together with the dates of opening and closing of the account at issue.

The CRT's Analysis

Admissibility of the Claim

The CRT has determined that the claim is admissible according to Article 18 of the Rules Governing the Claims Resolution Process, as amended (the "Rules").

Identification of the Account Owner

The CRT concludes that the Claimant has not identified the Account Owner as her relative. Although the name of her grandfather matches the published name of the Account Owner, the information provided by the Claimant differs materially from the unpublished information about the Account Owner available in the Bank's records. Specifically, the Claimant stated that her grandfather resided in Poland. In contrast, the Bank's records show that the Account Owner resided in a different country. Consequently, the CRT is unable to conclude that the Account Owner and the Claimant's grandfather are the same person.

Right of Appeal and Request for Reconsideration

Pursuant to Article 30 of the Rules, the Claimant may appeal this decision or submit a request for reconsideration within ninety (90) days of the date of the letter accompanying this decision.

An appeal must be based upon a plausible suggestion of error regarding the CRT's conclusions set out in this decision. Any appeals which are submitted without a plausible suggestion of error shall be summarily denied. A request for reconsideration must be based on new documentary evidence not previously presented to the CRT that, if considered, would have led to a different outcome of the claim. Claimants should briefly explain the relevance of the newly submitted documents in view of the conclusions stated in the certified decision.

The Claimant should send appeals and/or requests for reconsideration in writing to the following address: Oren Wiener, Claims Resolution Tribunal, Attention: Appeals / Request for Reconsideration, P.O. Box 9564, 8036 Zurich, Switzerland. If more than one account has been treated in this decision, the Claimant should identify the account, including, where available, the Account Identification Number, that forms the basis of the appeal and/or request for reconsideration.

Scope of the Denial

The Claimant should be aware that the CRT will carry out further research on her claim to determine whether an award may be made based upon the information provided by the Claimant or upon information from other sources.

Certification of the Denial

The CRT certifies this Denial for approval by the Court.
